Become a Member

If you hunger and thirst for justice' sake, you are invited to become a member of the South Dakota Peace and Justice Center. No one person has all the answers. Let us join hands and seek the answers together.

Members:

- Members guide the Center in defining the positions we take and the coalitions we form.
- Participate in grassroots activist campaigns, which may include writing letters to their newspapers, holding educational meetings for their communities, hosting rallies, vigils, or marches, contacting public officials, or circulating petitions.
- Elect a Board of Directors from a slate of nominees.

Wherever practical, members organize into local Peace and Justice Chapters. Members:

- Elect a statewide Board of Directors for the Center's decision making
- Raise awareness locally about peace and justice issues
- Participate in grassroots activist campaigns.

Center members statewide are served from an office staffed by a full time director.

To join, print out this form and send it with your check for $25 to South Dakota Peace and Justice Center, PO Box 116, Sioux Falls, SD 57101. Please make your check payable to South Dakota Peace and Justice Center.
